The Holy Quran Surah Al-Nisa Chapter 4: Verse 94

وَمَنْ يَقْتُلْ مُؤْمِنًا مَّتَعَمِدًا فَجَزَاءُ
جَهَنَّمَ خَالِدًا فِيهَا وَغَضِبَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ
وَلَعْنَهُ وَأَعَدَّ لَهُ عَذَابًا عَظِيمًا ﴿٩٤﴾

“And whoso kills a believer intentionally, his reward shall be Hell wherein he shall abide. And Allah will be wroth with him and will curse him and will prepare for him a great punishment.”

Hadith

Mu'az bin Anas (ra) relates that the Holy Prophet (saw) said:

“The height of excellence is that you should strengthen the ties of relationship with the one who severs them and be generous to the one who is miserly to you and be forgiving to the one who abuses you.

Friday Sermon

The Jumu'ah (Friday) prayer is one form of congregational worship in Islam. It takes place every Friday. Regular attendance at the Jumu'ah prayer is enjoined on the believer. According to a Saying of Hazrat Muhammad^{saw} this congregational prayer is twenty-five times more blessed than worship performed alone.

We encourage members to read Huzur's (atba) Friday sermons which can be found at: <http://www.alislam.org/archives/>

For your benefit we have published below, a summary of Huzur's (atba) recent Friday Sermons.

Positive resolve and absence of despair in true believers
December 24th , 2010

Summary

- Today Hudhur (aba) based his Friday Sermon on true believers positive resolve and absence of despair even in most challenging of times
- Hudhur (aba) recounted the faith-inspiring highlights of Jalsas in Rabwah in the past; enthusiasm of school children, decorations of Rabwah and generosity of hospitable families
- Hudhur (aba) counselled Ahmadis against despair in these difficult and restrictive circumstances of distress and anguish
- Hudhur (aba) advised us to turn all our distress in tearful supplication to God during Jalsa Qadian and then make this practice a permanent part of life
- Hudhur (aba) announced the sad news of the martyrdom of Sheikh Umer Javed sahib from Mardan, Pakistan

A blessed year for Ahmadiyya Muslim Community
December 31st 2010

Summary

- Hudhur (aba) said 2010 started on a Friday and is ending on a Friday, a day of immense blessings in Islam, thus giving significance to an otherwise inconsequential matter of last day of the year
- Our detractors may question the blessed aspect of the year for us as we lost nearly a hundred lives during the year, who left behind many bereaved families
- However, Hudhur (aba) said, when there are courageous mothers and families full of resolve then loss of life is not a sign of Gods displeasure
- Hudhur (aba) said tonight bid farewell to this year and welcome the next one with prayers for special capacity to remove our weaknesses that have kept us from doing good work, may we be able to carry them out in the New Year
- Hudhur (aba) commended the website team and mentioned that our website alislam.org has a new resource. A word search facility is now available for all the books of the Promised Messiah (on whom be peace)
- Hudhur (aba) directed that the Face book account opened in his name without his knowledge should be avoided and people should not leave their comments on it and no one should join it

Blessings of Financial Sacrifice and Waqf-e-Jadid New Year
January 7th , 2011

Summary

- Financial sacrifice is a directive for the righteous; spending in the way of Allah strengthens faith since one receives blessings of Allah as a result of financial sacrifice
- Allah accepts the zeal and the intention behind the sacrifice. Allah does not need money. He directs for financial sacrifices to bestow His rewards on us
- Hudhur (aba) gave many faith-inspiring incidences from Africa and India to highlight the degree of sacrifice they make for Waqf Jadid

Holy Prophet's (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) attribute of forgiveness
January 14th, 2011

- In spite of continuous persecution of himself and his Companions, when he attained power he demonstrated a peerless model of forgiveness

- If only the Muslims of today understood this point, they could help Islam advance manifold

TABLIGH CLASS REPORT (as part of the camping event)

(report by Waqas Ahmed, Mohtamim Tabligh)

As part of the Tarbiyyati section for Khuddam camp held on 18th and 19th December 2010, a Tabligh class was held after Maghrib and Isha prayers on 18th December. This was class was chaired by respected Amir Sahib.

Amir Sahib kindly highlighted few key, simple and very important points on how to conduct Tabligh in our current environment and also gave some instructions on how to prepare or educate ourselves to carry out Tabligh activities. Amir Sahib said:

- A simple yet very effective method of Tabligh training is that all Khuddam become familiar with all of Jamat's published Tablighi pamphlets and small books.
- If a Khadim can educate himself with this knowledge he can talk about Islam and Ahamdiyyat for reasonable amount of time with anyone.
- To conduct Tabligh Khuddam should first correct themselves in every manner by following the true teachings of Islam, Ahmadiyyat. Khuddam should display the best of behaviour and attitude in their work places, schools, colleges, universities etc in order to be considered the best employee or student.
- If a Khadim can be the best employee or student, his Tabligh will have a more positive effect as people tend to listen more to those who are the best in what they do.
- Lastly Amir Sahib instructed that Khuddam should profusely work towards establishing a strong and healthy relationship with their neighbours. It is widely known among our community that we do not share the same sentiment when it comes to our neighbours as compared to other communities in Australia.
- Islam says that a household residing 40 houses either side of your residence is classed as your neighbour. If we can maintain a good relationship with our neighbours, this in itself is a great form of Tabligh.
- In this Christmas period Khuddam should visit their neighbours, to greet them a "Merry Christmas" and give them a greetings card and gifts for their celebration.

After above, all Khuddam present were handed the newly printed Tabligh pamphlet. Khuddam were divided in to a number of groups to discuss the pamphlet and make themselves familiar with its contents.

The camping event was hosted by Majlis Al Sadaqat. The evening attendance was 55 Khuddam, half of the members slept over at mosque.

In the morning (19th December), Khuddam who slept overnight (24 members) prayed Tahajjud. After Tahajjud respected Sadr Khuddamul Ahmadiyya Australia chaired a further session on discussion of above pamphlet. He highlighted its key contents and instructed all Khuddam become familiar with the pamphlet.

The camping event was hosted by Majlis Al-Sadaqat. The evening attendance was 55 Khuddams, half of the members slept over at mosque.

PRESS RELEASE

MUSLIM LEADER PRAYS FOR PEACE DURING MUHARRAM LONDON, 14 December 2010

The Head of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Jamaat, Hadhrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad has today once again called on Muslims to give up all forms of violence and terrorism. His Holiness said:

"I pray that all cruelties that the misguided falsely justify in Allah's name and in the name of the Holy Prophet Muhammad come to an end."

Referring specifically to the holy Islamic month of Muharram that has just started, His Holiness prayed that the month passes without the bloodshed and sectarianism witnessed in previous years. He said:

"In the past we have seen that during the month of Muharram, in Pakistan and in certain other Muslim countries great tensions have erupted between Sunnis, Shias and other Muslim sects. These tensions have led to the killing of innocent people, attacks on religious processions and other terrorist activities. May God Almighty protect all people from such incidents."

His Holiness stated that he hoped that the Muslim world would come to realise the true purpose of the martyrdom of Hadhrat Imam Hussain.[1] His martyrdom came at a time when morality was failing, personal interests were superseding the wider interests of society and worldly matters were taking precedence over religion. Due to these factors cruelties exceeded all bounds. These mistakes, he said, were being repeated in today's world. Standards of morality and tolerance were falling and as a result members of the Ahmadiyya Muslim Jamaat were routinely persecuted and martyred by other Muslims, particularly in Pakistan.

His Holiness concluded by praying:

"May the Muslim world understand the true purpose of the martyrdom of Hadhrat Imam Hussain and may they accept the Messiah of this age, Hadhrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad of Qadian."

End of Release
